SOPH ELEVEN DEFEATS FROSH

''Rusties'' Net Two Touchdowns After Piercing Freshman Line—New Play Executed with Success

SCORE 12-0

Dick Fowler's sophomore football team ran away with the Frosh outfit, coached by Carl Warren, by a 12-0 score in a post-season game on Steuben Field last Friday afternoon. Although hampered by a muddy field, the Sophomore backfield executed several long runs and had little trouble in piercing the first year men's defense. The surprising feature of the game, however, was the novelty of the Sophomore attack. Twice during the game they used the Center College formation, dubbed the ''Sing Sing lock step'', making substantial gains.

Yates kicked off to Jackson in the first quarter and Sailor later made 5 yards. Aided by a fifteen yard penalty the Sophomores with a series of rapid line plunges, brought the ball to the fifteen yard line. A forward pass, Bingham to Yates, netted the touchdown. Towne failed in the try-for-point.

Sailor kicked off and Mayer received, running out of bounds. Successive runs by Aitken and Morris placed the ball on the Freshman four yard line where they held. Sailor line-plunged and the second quarter ended with the ball on the Slimers' ten yard line.

At the beginning of the second half the 1926 squad vainly tried to tighten up. Morris and Mayer, however, succeeded in coming within three yards of the goal, but were unable to score. Mayer then intercepted a pass from Holley and plunged for the second touchdown. Towne's kick was unsuccessful. Morris started another whirlwind advance, which ended within a half-yard of the uprights when the Freshmen blocked.

In the final period they made their only first down when Holley dodged through for a ten yard run. Morris and Aitken again featured, making consistent gains for downs.

For the Frosh, Sailor and Holley showed up well. Stanley at tackle and Burns at guard were every-play men.

For the second year team, Morris was outstanding. Towne's work on the line figured largely. The Aitken-Mayer-Bingham backfield, however, was very well developed considering the short practice.

Between the halves there was much evidence of class rivalry. The 1925 class, which had a larger turnout, peeraded the field and formed a ''5''. Cheer leader ''Russ'' Thompson chal-

TWO STUDENTS HURT IN AUTO SMASH-UP

Condon and Foley Badly Injured When Two Cars Collide on College Street

John L. Condon, '25, and Arthur F. Foley, '25, were injured last Thursday evening at 8:15 when a car driven by Vincent Burns, '26, skidded in front of Platt Osborne's house on College street, and knocked them to the ground. Mr. Albert I. Prettyman, physical director of the college, was driving in the opposite direction and collided with Burns' car and was badly smashed up. Mr. Prettyman broke a bone in his hand.

Condon and Foley with Francis E. Curran, '24, were walking towards Clinton on the right-hand side of the road. Burns was driving towards the village with six other students. He could not see the boys in the road because of the glare from an arc light. Mr. Prettyman was driving away from Clinton. Both drivers tried to avoid an accident, but a recent rain had made the pavement slippery. They skidded, and Foley and Condon were thrown against the concrete pavement while Mr. Prettyman's car was smashed up.

The injured men were taken to Dr. R. B. Dudley in Clinton Foley, who suffered a slight concussion of the brain, could not be moved from the Hill. Condon broke two bones in his spine and was cut in several places on the head. He was taken to Faxton Hospital in Utica. Last Sunday both men were reported improving. No one else was injured beyond a few bruises.

''Walking in the road,'' said Mr. Prettyman last Friday, ''is a dangerous practice, and the men who were hurt were chiefly responsible for the accident.''

COLLEGE GRANTS PUBLICATION ROOM

Staffs of Publications Take Over New Quarters This Week—New Program of Administration Adopted by Managers

In the interests of promoting a more systematic and efficient management of college publications, Room 14 in North College has been given to the managers to be used as a Publication Room. This will serve as an office for the editors and business managers of all Hamilton publications, each branch being in control at certain specified hours of the day. Meetings will be held there instead of after chapel, as the custom has been heretofore, and Life assignments also will be posted in the room each week. It is planned to have an ass-manager on duty at all times, so that anything important which may come up may be attended to at once. The room is also for the use of the Press Board, for whose use a telephone is to be installed. It is hoped that the establishment of this Publication Room as a central office and meeting place may do away with a great many of the former difficulties and complications that Hamilton publications have had to suffer.

The past week has seen several changes effected in the business departments of the various publications of the college. These changes have been made with the idea of increasing the efficiency of the business management by distributing more equally the responsibility of publication and circulation.

In previous years the assistant manager of Life has had little or nothing to do with the paper. The new pro-

TWENTY MEN MAKE DEBATE SQUAD

Men Chosen from Freshman Class Will Debate U. F. A. Team on December 8th—Plans for Rochester Debate

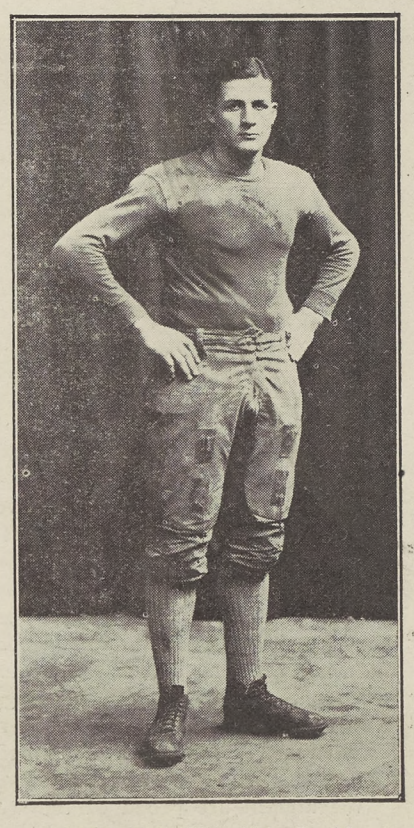
As a result of the Intercollegiate Debate trials held last Wednesday and Thursday evenings, twenty men were chosen to comprise the squad. For the trial, each man gave a five minute speech for or against the Fordney Bonus Bill. Four of the twenty men are of last year's team and did not have to try out this year. The judges were Professors Lewis, Marsh, Bonham, Patton, and Wood.

Thirty men tried out for the squad, and only four of these were freshmen. Of these four men, three were chosen: Bohn, Chretien, and Kirby, who will comprise a freshman team that will debate against the Utica Free Academy on Dec. 8th. The yearlings are to debate the affirmative of the Fordney Bonus proposition. Bohn has been made captain of the team.

Manager Lewi is trying to schedule a debate with Rochester at Hamilton for some time in December. If this can be arranged, the men who will be picked for the team will undoubtedly be those of last year's team.

Those selected for the squad are: 1923: Burke, Chase, Langtry, Fitch, and Tillotson; 1924: Albertson, Burroughs, Fuess, and W. Lewi; 1925: Briggs, Connell, Gualtieri, Harding, Lehmann, J. Lewi, Perrine, and L. A. Wood; 1926: Bohn, Chretien, and Kirby.

1923 FOOTBALL CAPTAIN



FRED BRUSH, '24, Tackle

BRUSH IS FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

The election of Fred Brush, '24, to the captaincy of next year's football eleven has met with nothing but the heartiest approval of every man on the Hill. For two seasons his work at tackle has been of the type that stamps him as a man whose football ability is unquestioned and whose fighting spirit can make a fighting team.

In the games of this season, Brush has been a tower of strength in the line. His offensive work has made long gains possible; his defense has often brought down the opposing back behind his own line.

Before entering Hamilton with the present junior class, Brush played a regular line position with the team of Rome Free Academy, where he was an invaluable player.

The confidence of this year's team in their choice of Brush extends throughout the whole college, coaches, students and facutly. If a fighting and clever captain can make next season's gridiron eleven a victorious one, then we may look for a banner football year in 1923.

Brush is a member of of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity.

CLASSES MEET IN BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Three Teams Represent Each Class in This Week's Schedule—Varsity Practice Starts Monday

Inter-class rivalry has manifested itself during the past week in the preparations for the inter-class basketball tournament, which is being held all this week preliminary to the regular varsity practice which starts next Monday.

As in years before, each class is represented by three teams, which are known as the first, second, and third team. The seniors first team competes with only first teams of the other classes, the second team only with the other second teams, and so forth. In this manner each team plays three

REVIEW OF FOOTBALL SEASON

Buff and Blue Eleven Scored Only 10 Points, But Showed Improvement During Season—Outlook Better For Next Year

The 1922 football season ended for the Buff and Blue on Nov. 11 with a 21 to 6 defeat by Union at Schenectady. To some this would seem that Hamilton did not have a successful season on the gridiron this year, but in the Union game Hamilton accomplished something that has not been done at Schenectady for some time, that of scoring a touchdown against the Garnet. Two years ago, the Buff and Blue scored a field goal which started the scoring for Hamilton on Alexander Field.

When looking back upon the football season this year, one must take into consideration what a tremendous task Coach Carroll had on his hands. He was forced to build up a team with only six letter men as a nucleus. Of the squad of fifty men that reported for practice this fall, only a very few had had any experience at all in intercollegiate football. It was Coach Carrell's task to build up a team entirely from green material. This meant long hours in going over the fundamentals that should have been learned before. Coupled with this difficulty, the squad had to be taught the new system of playing that Coach Carroll introduced.

The first game of the year was against Williams at Williamstown on Sept. 30. The game was played on one of the warmest days of the fall and both teams suffered from the heat. Williams soundly trounced Hamilton by the score of 41 to 0. The brand of football displayed by Hamilton during the first half was not far inferior to Williams, but the intense heat soon took the starch out of the Buff and Blue.

The second game was played at home against the strong team from the University of Rochester. They carried home the bacon with a 19 to 0 victory. The playing of the Buff and Blue during this game was really the poorest of the season. The team showed the gruelling effect of the game of the previous week. At moments during the game the Hamilton backfield showed surprising power but lacked the final punch.

The following week, the team journeyed to Hoboken and played Stevents Tech. Here the Buff and Blue easily outplayed Stevens. The line at no time during the game showed signs of weakening, and the backfield worked well. Twice during the game Hamilton was within easy striking distance of the Stevens' goal but lacked the necessary driving power to put the ball over.

The R. P. I. game the following week marked the high water level of the Hamilton season. R. P. I. was held to a 0 to 0 tie on Steuben Field. The Engineers were by far the strongest team which appeared on the Hamilton schedule this year. In this game Hamilton was outweighed fully fifteen pounds to the man. This game showed the splendid defense that Coach Carroll has perfected. Twice the R. P. I. team by smashing line plunges had worked the ball to within less than ten yards of the Buff and Blue goal line, when the light Hamilton line

The Football Captaincy.

The election of "Freddie" Brush to the captaincy of the 1923 football team certainly meets with the approval of all Hamilton men. The selection claims even more than mere approval. It merits the whole-hearted support of all who are interested in the affairs on the Hill. From all indications in the past season, Fred Brush will have the college backing him heart and soul when he assumes his duties as captain. The team has made a choice that allows no grounds for criticism.

Fred's work on the football eleven has been thoroughly done. It was not spectacular—but reliable, not spasmodic—but steady. Filling the position of right tackle, he has helped to form one of the strongest units of a strong defense.

The success of Brush's playing is a clear instance of what steady plugging will do. Gradually he worked himself up from a second-string sub to one of the most reliable men on the team, meriting a permanent berth on the line. Through his spirit of "stick-to-it-iveness," he has gained an honor he fully deserves.

The Publications Room.

The granting of a room by the college for the use of the publications marks a progressive step in the history of our periodicals. The benefits that will result to the editorial and business staffs of the Hamilton papers are many.

In the first place, it will lead to a valuable cooperation among the various publications that has hitherto been sadly needed. The staff members will have a general headquarters enabling them to accomplish far more than has been possible in the past. It will greatly facilitate the burden of the editors and managers, and help to inaugurate a systematic administration of the periodicals. The Press Board, too, will be able to send out by telephone the reports of the athletic contests, giving the college publicity it has been demanding for many years. It puts the papers on a basis with the other college publications, and opens the door to further development.

We do not claim that the mere acquisition of publication rooms will bring miraculous results in itself, but it gives a better opportunity for progressive innovations. It is essential that if any benefit is to be derived, the rooms be properly used and supervised. The Publication Board has requested that the undergraduates observe the rules regarding the use of the rooms.

COMMUNICATIONS

To the Editors of Life:

A word through Life, if I may encroach on your valuable space, to the members of Hamilton's football team of the season just ended.

An alumnus dating back, alas, to the time before there was a football team at Hamilton, I had the great pleasure of attending the Union game week before last. It was a real pleasure to be long remembered. It will, I am sure, be long remembered with pleasure by every Hamilton man who witnessed it.

I regret, of course, that you were denied the victor's wreath. But I congratulate you, and every one of you! I glory in the fact that, although it was not written in the prophesy that you should win, there is no humiliation in that defeat. The game was clean, manly, and hard fought. You lost. But you lost like real, red blooded men! Every man who saw that struggle is proud of every one of you.

We alumni are proud of the wonderful Hamilton spirit that inspired you, in the face of impending defeat, to fight as you did fight, to the bitter end, to the glory and fame of the dear old Mother on the Hill. You went down—fighting! Not a man among you faltered—not a man quit. You gave your all.

The greatest heroes are not always found on the winning side. I salute you—heroes in defeat! God bless you all.

AN ALUMNUS.

To the Editor of Life:

The American University Union in Europe, through its branches in Paris and in London, exists for the purpose of aiding in every possible way American University men and women who are studying or travelling in Europe. Among the subscribing colleges and universities who maintain the American University Union is Hamilton College.

In order that no student or graduate of Hamilton College may come to England without knowledge of the location and purpose of this office, I am writing to ask if you can see your way clear to publishing in Hamilton Life as a standing item or at least periodically as often as possible, the following notice:

"The American University Union, British Division, at 50, Russell Sq., around the corner from the British Museum, is the headquarters in England of visiting American college men and women, who are invited to register immediately upon their arrival in London. Lists of lodgings, guide books, directories, public announcements and the catalogues of British and American Universities may be freely consulted here. The Director and his assistants are preparing also to put visiting students in personal touch with univerity and college officers and teachers anywhere in the United Kingdom and to secure admission to libraries, including that of the British Museum and the Boldeian Library at Oxford."

HAYS TAPPED FOR D. T.

At a meeting of the D. T. Club held at the Delta Upsilon House Wednesday night, David Douglas Hays, '25, of Johnstown, N. Y., Psi Upsilon, was elected to membership in that society. It has been the endeavor of the club to keep the membership of its active organization up to the quota of thirteen members. A vacancy was caused when John B. Turner, '25, left college recently.

TWO college men were walking down the road, when a classmate whizzed by in his car.
"Pretty soft!" sighed one.
Said the other, "I'll show him. Some day I'll own a car that's got his stopped thirty ways."
The more some men want a thing, the harder they work to get it. And the time to start working—such men at college know—is right now.
All question of classroom honors aside, men would make college count for more if they realized this fact: You can buy a text book for two or three dollars, but you can sell it for as many thousand—once you have digested the contents.
This is worth remembering, should you be inclined to the self-pity which social comparisons sometimes cause. And anyway, these distinctions are bound to be felt, even though your college authorities bar certain luxuries as undemocratic—as perhaps they are.
The philosophy that will carry you through is this: "My day will come—and the more work I crowd into these four years, the quicker I'll make good."

SYRACUSE DOWNS COLGATE ELEVEN

Orange Noses Out Maroon in Annual Struggle at the Archbold Stadium—Thirty Thousand See Game

SCORE 14-7

Thirty thousand football enthusiasts saw the powerful Syracuse eleven barely wrest a 14-7 victory from Colgate in the annual classic of the two universities, last Saturday in the Archbold Stadium at Syracuse. The big Orange team made good opportunity of the several breaks in the game, despite the fact that for the most part they were outplayed by the Maroon.

The first score for Syracuse came when Colgate's center passed the ball back to the fullback, who fumbled it on his own goal line. Willard Anderson, right halfback, knifed his way through the Colgate ranks for a touchdown. McBride, left halfback, kicked the goal.

The next scoring came in the third quarter when a 70-yard run by Zimmerman, returning a long punt from Tryon, made all the spectators go wild. Zimmerman ran close to the chalk line, and the Maroon players, believing him out of bounds, made feeble resistance to stop him. Three times Colgate had a chance to score, but lost all three times by using a forward pass at the critical moment, the pass being intercepted in each case. And then after being forced back almost to their own goal, Colgate cut loose.

Hitting the line hard at every down, the backs took the ball to the Syracuse 35 yard line. An end run brought fifteen yards more and was followed by nine more yards as the result of a line buck. Tryon, fighting like a maniac, ran the rest of the distance for a touchdown. Welch kicked the goal.

In a remarkable rally, Colgate tore games; each class plays nine games. The winning class is that which has the highest average for all three teams.

According to the rules drawn up by Manager Fitzgerald and approved by Coach Prettyman and Coach Carroll, a man who has played in a game on the second or third team may be moved up to a higher team for a subsequent game, but he cannot be dropped to a lower team.

Time is saved by sandwiching the halves of the games. As soon as the first teams to play finish their first half, the teams playing the second game start in the intermission between the halves of the game of the first team to play. The length of the halves of the first team games is fifteen minutes, that of the second and third team games is twelve minutes. In this way three games are played in an hour and a half.

The varsity squad will be picked from the men competing in these inter-class games. Captain Garner, Doane, Hamilton, McGiffin, N., and Hatch are the basketball letter men who are now in college. C. Smith, A. Warren and Croasdaile also remain from last year's squad.

The varsity schedule has not been completed or approved. Tentative arrangements for the following games have been made:

Dec. 18—U. of Maine in Clinton.
Jan. 12—Knox in Clinton (pending).
Jan. 13—R. P. I. in Clinton.
Jan. 17—Colgate in Hamilton.
Jan. 19—Rochester in Clinton.
Feb. 7—Stevens in Clinton.
Feb. 10—Rochester in Rochester.
Feb. 17—Amherst in Clinton.
Feb. 22—Union in Clinton.
Feb. 26—St. Lawrence in Clinton.
Feb. 28—Colgate in Clinton.
Mar. 2—Union in Schenectady (pending).
Mar. 3—Stevens in Hoboken (pending.)

Twelve games will appear upon the approved schedule.

Business managers of Lit and the Gaboon are dissatisfied with the results turned in by candidates for their positions. The acute financial difficulties of both managements cannot be remedied unless the revenue from advertising is greatly increased.

FINAL SOCCER GAME WITH COLGATE CANCELLED

Condition of Field Prevents Playing—Team Completes Better Season Than in Previous Years

The soccer game between Colgate and Hamilton scheduled for last Wednesday was cancelled because of the poor condition of the field. This game was arranged as a post-season game, but the managers of both teams did not think it wise to hold the match on such a slippery field.

The Buff and Blue soccer team has this year completed the third and most successful season of its existence. For two past season, Coach Gelas has had to place an inexperienced eleven in the field against veteran teams with disappointing results. Even in the earlier games of the present schedule, however, it was evident that the team was to be victor in a good proportion of its contests.

As in other years, professional teams for nearby towns were encountered in practice games. Clark Mills opened the schedule by defeating Hamilton 4-2. Sherrill followed the next week by administering a 3-0 defeat. A team from Willowvale Men's Club, strengthened for the contest, received a great jolt when the varsity completely outplayed it in a game which resulted in a 3-0 victory for Hamilton.

The trip to West Point for the first intercollegiate game of the season saw the soccer team in a bad slump. Before a large crowd, the varsity fought a losing game. Favored by a strong breeze, the Army gained a two-point lead in the first half and were again threatening to score when the whistle blew. The next period they had the Buff and Blue at their mercy. The end of the game saw us buried under a score of 8-0.

Shifts mere made in the line-up, and, as a result, the next week's game with Syracuse revealed a new fight that held the Orange to a 2-2 tie. A trip to Williams resulted in a game which the Buff and Blue won easily, 3-1.

Palmer, captain of this year's team, Willard, fullback, and Marlow, halfback, will be missing next year. Their places will be hard to fill but Coach Gelas confidently expects that the team next year will be stronger than ever.

Carpe Diem

Lo and behold it is here. Hardly had Carpe awoke from the fact that the Union affair was past when to his deadened ears came a sound strangely familiar, a sound that touched some hidden memory. A ROW. "What's up?" "The Sophs are tying up the Alpha Delt slimers. Sure enough Amidst a group of astonished upperclassmen we found the rowers. One senior whispered hoarsely, "Why, that's what we used to do." "S-sh, the faculty will hear them." "Somebody,s going to suffer for this." Said the slimer president, "How can we have a banquet if the sophs tie the Alpha Delt freshmen up every night?" Said Johnnie Willard when he came home and looked at his room, "My, I didn't feel any earthquake in Utica."

Carpe has counted the new football team which for the past two weeks has been ruining the campus. No wonder Union won with all that Hamilton ability going to waste. With Chastney, the light but fast quarter, and with Sessions, the rangy tackle, what an aggregation they make. Doane's Devils challenge the world.

There are some things we can stand but there are some that do get our nerve. Now "Al's" moustache looks pretty good. In fact one slimer wanted to know if that was really Charlie Chaplin. And also there is that shadow on Tubby's upper lip. That doesn't rate so well but we're all pretty tired from removing it so often. Tubby is so persistent. But, Carpe wants to enter a serious phase now. What shall we do about Cass? As the young man said when the elastic broke, "That's stretching things too far." Men of Hamilton, be you students or alumni, something must be done. For several weeks we have waited for his own brothers to erase this blot on the reputation of the Clinton barbers, but it has done no good. We must now take matters into our own hands. We do not mean to force the culprit into taking any drastic step but—just a little word of warning is all we mean to imply.

Carpe happened to cast his eyes towards the reflections on our intellect which the faculty posted in the library the other day. He is pleased to announce that there are some freshmen who are not posted. Yes, six in all, we believe. Perhaps our instructors figure that the best way to do away with these nasty rows is the abolition of our slimers. Please don't, who'd do our work?

Mr. Marmon and his assistants gave a delightful little party in the Athletic Building week before last. It was attended by quite a large crowd, in fact all of the Life reporters were there as well as the football squad. Did Mr. Marmon think he could draw a crowd by just pulling an engine apart and putting it together again? Pooh—we've been watching Pete Gould do that with every sort of car for the last two years. No thrills for us.

TIME FOR JUNIOR PROM IS DECIDED UPON

Old System of Holding Winter Prom is Finally Adopted by Interfraternity Council

The Inter-Fraternity Council and the Junior Prom Committee have finally decided that the annual Junior Prom shall be held at the mid-term vacation as usual. There will be the usual mid-term vacation, and the Prom will be held Feb. 2.

During the first part of this term there was considerable agitation to do away with the mid-term house party and have only two parties a year. In accordance with a request of the Inter-Fraternity Council, the faculty expressed a willingness to give two days' vacation in the spring some time before the middle of May for this purpose. In granting this vacation, however, the faculty stipulated that the usual mid-term vacation would be abolished.

The Inter-Fraternity Council was evenly divided for some time as to the elimination of the Winter House Party, but last week an agreement was reached to the effect that the number and time of parties be the same as before.

CHARLATANS PREPARING FOR WINTER ITINERARY

Frequent Rehearsals Held by Casts in One-Act Plays—Utica and Clinton Performances Assured

The Charlatans have begun intensive rehearsing of the four one-act plays in preparation for the pre-Christmas performances. Manager DeWitt is now making final arrangements for the Utica performance, an annual affair with the Charlatans, which will probably be given in the middle of December. A large crowd from the Hill always attends this performance. This year it will be held in the Auditorium of the Utica Country Day School, instead of the New Century auditorium, as has been the custom in the last two years.

Following closely upon the Utica performance, a date has been arranged for a production in Clinton. No performance was held in the village last year, so the engagement next month is certain to attract a large crowd.

Unusual and striking settings will be used in the new productions. "The Birthday of the Infanta" requires a setting of an interior of a palace, overlooking a garden. The scene for "As Good As Gold" is laid on a hillside at early morning. This will give opportunity for striking lighting effects. An interior of a laundry is required for " 'Op 'O Me Thumb", and a very plain interior for "Lima Beans", as no properties are used in the production of this unusual [illegible]

Y. M. MOVIES

The next feature picture to be shown on the Commons screen for the amusement of the Hamilton undergraduate body is the Paramount Special "Our Leading Citizen." The picture marks the celebrated George Ade's debut as photo-playwright. The well-known humorist not only wrote the original story, but contributed the witty and original titles which add so much to this rollicking comedy.

The story, starring the popular Thomas Meighan, is fast-moving and clever. It concerns a small-town Indiana lawyer, known as "Lazy Dan" Bentley. He considers law merely a pastime, his main avocation being fishing. When the war comes, he forgets trout and hurries to France, losing his reputation for laziness and gaining several decorations. On his return, he attempts to drift back into his old mode of life, but is prevented by his sweetheart, who insists that he is just the man Indiana needs in Congress. The method by which the rejuvenated Dan smashes the local machine and wins success at the polls is a novel one, worthy of recommendation to all future politicians.

Alfred Green, director of "Our Leading Citizen", has managed to secure an all-star cast for this feature. The Famous Players-Lasky producers maintain a large stock company at Hollywood, the only one of its kind in moving pictures. As a result, the cast includes such brilliant and versatile players as Theodore Roberts, generally considered the greatest character actor in the films today, Lois Wilson, famous for her work in "Manslaugher", the veteran Charles Ogle, and William P. Carleton, once leading man for the popular Betty Compson.

The feature picture will be accompanied by a two-reel Christie comedy.

tightened and presented a stone wall defense that R. P. I. could not penetrate.

The game the following week with Alfred also resulted in a tie. The game should have been a victory for Hamilton but the mediocre quality of the football displayed did not have sufficient power to push back the little Alfred team for a score.

On Nov. 4th, St. Lawrence upset the Hamilton dope and returned to Canton with a 6 to 3 victory. The game was a hard one to lose. Due credit must be given St. Lawrence, because she was abe to take advantage of the breaks of the game and pull through to a victory. Hamilton scored for the first time of the season with a field goal in the third period after the team had worked their way to within striking distance of the St. Lawrence goal.

The Union game is too fresh in the minds of every one to bear any comment on it. The game was decidedly Union's during the first half, and the honors were almost even in the second half with Hamilton a slight favorite.

One of the bright spots of the season was the bringing to light of some really good material. Alison, the crack track man, has shown up to be a fast half back of no mean ability. Morris, the little red-head wonder, is ne of the best open field men seen on the Hill in a long time. Martin and Mayer are also men with much ability. On the line, Stanley, Brush, and Ogilvie and Towne showed much promise. One of the best parts of the Hamilton playing has been the stellar work of Dick Fowler, last year's captain. It was his splendid defense work that saved Hamilton's goal line from being crossed more than it was and Captain Warren's work was effective throughout the season.

SOPH ELEVEN DEFEATS FROSH

holes in the Orange ranks, but by hanging tactics, failed to take advantage of them. Once in the last few minutes of play, Colgate had a chance to score when Zimmerman fumbled the ball on the Orange 4 yard line. However, Anderson recovered the ball and the game ended with the ball in Syracuse's possession on its own 12 yard line.

Choice of a Career

From the Yale News

THE NINETY-FOUR

Someone, probably an insurance agent, was quoted recently as saying that from the mass of one hundred college graduates one individual only rose to the Polo and butler class, perilously near the top of the financial ladder. Five others became comfortably off and found themselves after twenty years at the small yacht and chauffeur stage. The other ninety-four presumably congregate in the great section of the American people who drive their own Buicks to the golf club. In other words, dreaming about being a rich man is one thing, and making the grade is "something else again."

Yet the ninety-four presumably work just as hard as the sumptuous six. Their business is the axis on which a small and uninteresting world revolves. They have become devotees of the dollar and when that fickle deity deserts, have nowhere else to turn. Jammed in a dull, straight rut of business they can never leave the road and jump the fence into finer fields of life. This, then, is the portion of ninety-four men out of every hundred now on the campus.

The answer to the problem lies in the proper choice of a career.

Between now and Commencement we shall have something to offer on the subject of "Careers." Watch for the space with the Famous Signature.
